Rockaway Beach Rockaway Beach is a charming community just 17 miles from the bustling, trendy metropolis of New York City. It's just 15 miles from the Atlantic Ocean, with miles of sandy beaches, all backed by the sparkling waters of Rockaway Sound and beautiful bay views. Because of its beautiful location and local traditions, it's no surprise that Rockaway Beach is a popular family destination. Here you will find many recreational activities and attractions. With a population of approximately 4,600, Rockaway Beach has about 30 restaurants, cafes and bars, as well as several shopping centers and some of the area's best-known golf and equestrian facilities. The beachfront is 24/7, and crime is extremely rare. Many of the shops and restaurants are open 24 hours a day. With close proximity to several major airports and New York City, Rockaway Beach offers many suburban flights and car rental options. Rental car firms such as National and Hertz have local facilities near the beach. Rockaway Beach is a gateway to the famed Ellis Island Historic site, which was the point of entry for immigrants to America and was built in 1892. For more information on Rockaway Beach and nearby attractions, contact the Rockaway Beach County Convention and Visitors Bureau, which can be reached at (718) 834-9200.

Local Events The Main Beach Pavilion hosts Rockaway's July 4th celebration annually.

Victory Gardens at the Ramapo Fieldstone Museum Grounds hosts a variety of volunteer events and activities throughout the year.

A five-day tour to Kodaikanal. Thursday, April 29, 2017 Come and witness the magic of nature. Situated in the heart of the Western Ghats, Kodaikanal town is a breathtaking destination in the state of Tamilnadu in India. The name Kodaikanal is derived from two Sanskrit words, Kodaka and Kanal. This is home to the sacred Mother Parvathi Temple, a sacred shrine dedicated to the Hindu Goddess of Love. And Suril Hills in the north and Puliur in the south, there are many options for trekking. You will also have a walk through the many lush valleys in the town, and enjoy the pristine blue lakes, coffee plantations and lush hills. With a beautiful backdrop, the weather
