it, how do you go about selling your stuff?In addition, I have a Microsoft Certificate which holds a wealth of information for my customers. I can't disclose that information in a public forum. If it's okay with you, please comment here and let me know you are still interested in doing business with me. Before you go I would like to request that you don't beat around the bush. If you don't have the money at this time to purchase a microphone, or if the microphone is just too costly, please tell me so I can give you a recommendation for another option that will suit you better. Also let me know of any problems you have had with your previous microphone which we can discuss and look into how to solve those issues. Thank you in advance for your reply. Peter Dally P.S. This is the last thing I can offer for free. Once we reach a point when we have more time, more money, and more experience I will be setting myself up and looking for new customers so if you don't hear from me then that's fine. I'm more than happy to
