Only for testing purposes, but it's still better than the official version. If you don't want to use this tool, go to your game launcher to the "Downloads" tab and click on the "Activate via Mac" or "Activate via Win" icon. It should ask you if you are a new player, or have downloaded this item in the past. Then, select "Activate" and wait a few minutes. AP The Lions lost more than just a game on Sunday. And though they barely need extra motivation to get themselves right, they still have one more loss on their roster to make sure they do that. According to Clarence Brooks of the Detroit News, the Lions will have to restructure Michael Stafford's contract after he was activated from injured reserve this week. And that won't make Stafford happy. Stafford has played well this season, but his hamstring injury and resulting surgery have limited him to 13 games with the Lions. Detroit will be hoping that he and the hamstring are back to 100 percent next week so he can get a chance to prove he still has something left. He'll have a chance to do just that in Minnesota next week, but the Lions have a shot at a big defensive performance against the Vikings. A game that may lead to a big defensive play if they can make enough of it. Windows 10 Pro has been released by Microsoft, which means we should have a new update coming for it. If you have Windows 10 Pro, you can check for updates right here. There is also a chance that Microsoft will release another update for Insider program users. Unfortunately, this window won't include the full version of Windows 10, but it will give us a taste of what is to come. Here is everything you need to know about the current update. What are the updates available? The updates available right now are: KB3134478 KB3134471 KB3134468 KB3134476 KB3134479 KB3134480 KB3134484 These are just the updates that I found in the Windows 10 Insider program that were released today. The full list might be different if Microsoft releases another update on a different day. What's New? Microsoft has released a new build for Windows 10 Pro and it includes a bunch of new features and improvements. Let's
