-----FREMANTLE'S Aaron Sandilands says he is happy to stay at Essendon after telling the Bombers he wanted to return home. Speaking ahead of the Dockers' season opener against West Coast, the veteran midfielder said he was happy to play at the MCG. "I'm happy with where I'm at at the moment and definitely looking to stay here," Sandilands said. "I've told the club and my manager I want to stay here, that's all I'll be saying." Sandilands, who has played only one game for the Bombers this year, spent the 2014 season in the Bombers' engine room and was a regular pick for the past six seasons. He has expressed his disappointment at the end of his tenure at Victoria Park and said he was looking forward to returning to Essendon. "I'm definitely looking forward to being back at Essendon. I left last year because I needed to experience different things and I needed to test myself. So, coming home was always going to be something that I wanted to do," Sandilands said. "I think we know how good we are and how good we can be. Every time we get out to play on the ground we do well and I think we can be one of the best at home and our crowd will really push us." Sandilands was also asked whether he was ready to become a father this year. "Being able to get a contract for two years here with the club I know as my manager and my family at home, I'm not worrying about going away for a period of time, so yeah, I'd like to add a new little guy to my

Development continued... Southsider, Norv Turner's last days as a GM head coach were cut short by a late season injury. Rohn decided to make one last charge at the top of the coach tree with his final press conference of the season: see clip below. Thursday, 2 October 2011 Goals again allowed the Hawks to take a big step to securing a minor premiership. Ben Barba stepped into the No.1 spot across half-back. Of the two teams, Hawthorn had the most destructive of defences, while the Bulldogs were the most brittle, heading into what would turn out to be a tight race down the home-and-away. This would be the last Grand Final I'd cover here,
