We have heard from advocates from across the country for over a decade about the many ways we can be criminalized for being poor in America. Through the lens of: police violence, anti-poverty poverty policies and criminalization of homelessness, we will explore this dark underbelly of our society as it impacts our most vulnerable. It will be a discussion with us, the audience, and our invited speakers: Carol Steiker, President and CEO of the Center on Budget and Policy Priorities Eric Tingey, PhD Candidate in American Studies, University of California - Berkeley John Haaga, Executive Director, West Coast Advocacy Fund (WCAF) Polly Davis-Reed, Executive Director of the National Coalition for the Homeless (NCH) Part 1 of 2 sessions Wednesday, April 4, 8:00-9:00 pm Valley Performing
