"Roblox is an online game platform and game creation system developed by Roblox Corporation that allows users to program games and play games created by other users. Created by David Baszucki and Erik Cassel in 2004 and released in 2006, the platform hosts user-created games of multiple genres coded in the programming language Lua. For most of Roblox's history, it was relatively small, both as a platform and a company. Roblox began to grow rapidly in the second half of the 2010s, and this growth has been accelerated by the COVID-19 pandemic. Roblox is free to play, with in-game purchases available through a virtual currency called Robux. As of August 2020, Roblox had over 164 million monthly active users, including more than half of all American children under 16. Although Roblox has received generally positive reviews from critics, it has faced criticism for its moderation, microtransactions, and exploitative practices directed toward children. Roblox was owned and operated by the Roblox Corporation until 2014, when it was acquired by Vice Media. Vice later sold it to Viacom, and Viacom later sold the game to Tencent in 2015. In 2018, China-based company Newzoo estimated that global revenues for Roblox would top US$3 billion by 2020. There was no smell of dust, nay, no smell at all. The stones themselves took the place of the ancients who were mouldering and blackening under fire. The stone body of a pig rustled beyond the darkness with blood in its eyes. It came on by degrees, with a clatter of hooves and a swishing of skirts. Such a commotion! Take me back, Mother Mary, take me back to the small town where I was born. Take me back to the post by the gate and the gatekeeper's house. I need to rest, my blood must be cooled. It is no surprise at all, I ask of you, Mother Mary, take me back to that place where I was born. Take me back to the scullery, where, I think, there is water in the bucket sink; yes, I can still taste the water as I drive my spoon into its depths. Take me back to that dark place, the one that has walls and a roof. Mother Mary, take me back! There is a smell, a strong smell of woodsmoke, and the smoke comes from the fireplace in the room.
