its been a while since ive posted something on this site, but ive been getting a lot of requests for it. so here it is, the long-awaited, completely free, 7.1 patch for cycling 74s max/msp gen~ plugin. ive been using the cycling 74 gen~ plugin since the first release, and its sound is amazing. the plugin is completely free to use, and in its current state you can create object (called gen~) that are instantly compiled into functions which you can then patch (automatically or manually) to create custom dsps. im hoping that youll enjoy using this patch, and if you do, please comment or drop me a line and let me know. its been a while since ive posted anything on this site, but ive been getting a lot of requests for it. so here it is, the long-awaited, completely free, 7.1 patch for cycling 74s max/msp gen~ plugin. at cycling 74, it is imperative to its customers that the worlds best music making expertise is only at hand, and so weve made it possible for you to use a max soundcard in your computer, and use the very best of its instruments. the new max soundcard is the final word in quality and power, at the same time as being completely driverless. its a transparent and all-in-one instrument, and it is convenient to use. if youve used max before, youll know that it is very extensible. a lot of artists and developers have made their own objects for max, and there are many addons available on their website. theres an article in the last issue of the journal of electronic musicians about a max object called retune, whichwas developed by daniel kohler (who makes the fantastic object portamento). thisobject can be used for microtonal scales. the object even has a gui to show you what youre doing, so that if youre not sure how to set up a scale, you can always ask for help. cycling 74 have added commercial support to their product by making the object a part of their propitch object. it costs $25 a year to be a propitch subscriber, but that may be worth it if this object can help you to make music. if you dont like paying for these subscription models, you can always donate to the cycling 74 group to help support the development of max. 5ec8ef588b
